Broken Destiny - Jeaniene Frost

The Beautiful Ashes is a well written emotional roller coaster ride with an original plot, which is difficult to say having read as many books as I have. Ivy is a very relatable heroine. She begins the book just trying to find her sister and not really "knowing" much or accepting things as they are.

The Beautiful Ashes cover! - Jeanienefrost.com

The Sweetest Burn is the second installment in Jeaniene Frost's new-adult/urban fantasy series titled Broken Destiny. This story picks up not very long after the first book The Beautiful Ashes ends, and I admit, I didn't re-read the first book or refresh my memory in any way before starting this one. Since it's been a long three-year stretch in between these two books, it took a little bit to remember all the former happenings but it wasn't too long before everything fell into place.

Broken Destiny Complete Collection on Apple Books

Jeaniene Frost goes out big with this final book in her Broken Destiny series, though really, when you're talking about an epic fight between ancient factions of good an evil, anything less would be a total letdown. This third instalment picks up right on the heels of book two, where our hero Adrian has betrayed his wife yet again.
